

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Our Commitment to Your Confidentiality

At the Happy School Award, we understand that your trust is the foundation of everything we do. We are deeply committed to protecting your privacy and the confidentiality of your feedback. Therefore, we want to provide you with this clear assurance:

1. Protection of Your Confidential Information

The Happy School Award promises that we will never share, sell, or otherwise distribute your confidential personal information to any third party.

2. Anonymity of Your Survey Responses

To ensure you can provide honest and open feedback without concern, the Happy School Award will not intentionally reveal the identity of any specific survey respondent. Your individual responses will not be disclosed to your supervisors, school administration, the press, or any other external parties. The insights we share will always be in an aggregated and anonymized format, ensuring that no individual can be reasonably identified.

Your voice is safe with us. Thank you for helping us celebrate and improve the wonderful work happening in our schools.